

Queen of Folly Beach / Edisto Beach Pageant

September 11, 2010

7:00 PM

We are so happy to have you and members of your family participate in our event this year. Without you, we would not be able to have a successful pageant. But there are a few things that we feel that we must address in order for us to have the best possible event that we can.

Firstly, we are excited that this year we are inviting the mothers and fathers of our contestants to attend and be part of the Reigning Queens Luncheon in the Park the day of the pageant. The contestants and the judges as well as members of the media will be in attendance. At this time the judges will be speaking with the contestants one on one and in groups. The judges may choose also to speak with parents and members of the media. WE want everyone to please be courteous of others and not interrupt others conversations or discussions. Parents should not ask the judge's opinion of their contestant or other contestants.

Any disruptions to this event by anyone will result in the responsible person being escorted away from the event and will not be allowed to return. If the disruption results in laws being broken, those responsible will be arrested.

Contestants are reminded to be on their best behavior especially after the final decisions are made. No one is to approach the judges after the pageant. If the judge would like to speak with a specific contestant, one of the staff members will set up a meeting. Judges will not be able to give out scores.

All rehearsals are closed to the public. Tickets will go on sale at 6pm. The judges will be seated at 6:45. The Event will start at 7:pm.
